Community Lay Director's Corner

Dear GRACE Community,
Please pray for our Country and our leaders.

It was a blessing to see each of you who attended our July Gathering at Winona Methodist Church. Special thanks to Pastor Dan Vickers and the wonderful folks for hosting us along with their warm hospitality. We had a very large turnout along with eleven Pastors in attendance as well. Praise God!

Fall Walk #106 and #107 Lay Directors Rick Rundquist and Liz Webb are "knee deep" in the planning and coordination of Team Training which begins August 10th. Training schedules are being put together to ensure that each team member has the proper training and that each Talk follows the Upper Room guidelines. Let us, as a Community, keep our Walk Leaders and Team members in our prayers.

GRACE Community, please identify people in your circle of influence that God has put on your heart to approach about attending the Fall Walks. Their response is not your responsibility. God asks only for your obedience to Him. We need to remember to pray for each one of these Pilgrims and also remember - God can open closed doors. What may seem impossible to us is nothing for our Creator.

I look forward to seeing each of you at Bar None Cowboy Church in Tatum for our Gathering on August 17th. We will have a potluck luncheon at noon followed by Worship.

Please pray for our Country and our leaders.

Board of Directors Candidates Needed

The time has come to start a list of new candidates for next year's board, and we have 5 positions to fill.

Is God calling you to fill one of those positions?

The board meets one Thursday a month, and you would serve for 3 years. It's not a hard job, but a very important job for our Emmaus Community!

Please reach out to me, or any board member for information.

YOUR WALKING FITNESS

How's your Walk? No, not your step count on your Fitbit. You know, your important Walk. The Walk you have with Christ by your side. Your personal, in this world of the fallen, the daily struggling Walk.

2 Timothy 4: 3-5 instructs all of us in the dangers of following our culture in pursuing our daily Walk with Christ.

'You're going to find that there will be times when people will have no stomach for solid teaching but will fill up on spiritual junk food—catchy opinions that tickle their fancy. They'll turn their backs on truth and chase mirages. But you—keep your eye on what you're doing; accept the hard times along with the good; keep the Message alive; do a thorough job as God's servant.'
--The Message

As a part of our Walk with Christ, we are called to fellowship and discipleship for a number of valid reasons. We are to lift up, support, and hold one another accountable for our thoughts, actions and inactions. Oops, did I just step on my own toes? Or maybe yours?

In a day-to-day world that no longer holds to God's Word, what do we listen to? The everyday things are not in accordance with what is the truth, or do we listen to combat evil through prayer, study and action on our part. To "keep the Message alive", takes perseverance and persistence. It requires our participation in the building up God's Kingdom here and now.

All of us, as Fourth Dayers', have had the blessing of The Walk to Emmaus. We know how it changed and enhanced our Walk with Christ. How it gave us new tools and determination to rebuke the world in favor of the Word. In some manner, every one of us can support the upcoming Men's and Women's Fall Walks. Could you sponsor a Pilgrim, attend Send-Off, Candlelight, Closing, participate in the Prayer Vigil, or most importantly, pray in general for the Walks and our Community?

Let us all take a personal Walk Fitness assessment. The lessons learned from our Walk to Emmaus will contribute to our obedience to "do a thorough job as God's servants".

God Answers Prayers

He parted the Red Sea and brought the dead to life. We have proof throughout the Bible that God performs miracles, but we don't live like we know we can ask for them.

Without bold prayers, we can't recognize when miracles happen. And if we don't ask in faith for big things, God can't get the glory when they come.

He performs big and small miracles every day. As we begin to recognize His movements, we're able to look back on our lives and see God's faithfulness. By praying big prayers, we're able to see God as a powerful Father who wants to give us good gifts.

Sometimes God moves a mountain an inch a day, and sometimes He moves it a foot in a moment. We don't get to decide the timing or the outcome, but we can choose to trust in His goodness and faithfulness. We can continue to ask in faith and believe that He can and will answer our prayers.

I know God has placed someone on your heart to speak with about attending the Fall Emmaus Walks. I know this because the Team of Walk 107 has been praying for these Pilgrims. God knows who they are, and He has tasked you to invite them. Don't know what to say? What if you simply asked someone if they have a desire to elevate their relationship with the Lord; to take their relationship with Him to the next level?

Be bold. Be obedient. Their response is not your responsibility. God has already worked it out in their heart. They are waiting on something they don't even know they're waiting on.

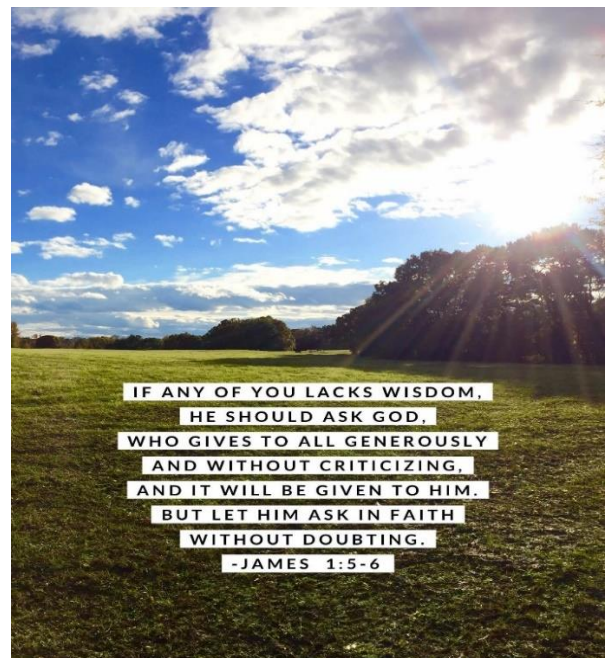

I had no desire to attend an Emmaus Walk when I was asked. Yet, I found myself saying, "Yes" and I couldn't believe it. That's how God works.

Attending Emmaus changed my life. It elevated my relationship with the Lord. I didn't even know another level existed. I owe all the glory to God! He worked a miracle in me. He's still in the business of miracles. He just needs your obedience.

Words For Reflection from the Emmaus Ministries

The rapid procession of church seasons, beginning with Advent every year, can sometimes seem like we're holding onto the tail of a runaway tornado. Advent, then Christmas (and the season thereof that follows), then Epiphany, which can take just a few weeks or a little longer depending on when Easter Sunday is that year. Lent, and the season of Easter, and the grand celebration of Pentecost with its violent wind and tongues of flame. Whew! Everybody, take a breath!

Then it seems we are in "the season after..." f-o-r-e-v-e-r! Six months. Immediately after Pentecost, families begin summer vacations and other travels, followed by the busyness of returning to the routine when August and September begin creeping in. It is easy to feel that nothing important happens in the church or in our spiritual lives during this time.

But nothing could be further from the truth. This season is when we step directly into the story of Jesus. We walk alongside him on the journey and participate in the teaching, preaching, giving, and forgiving of our Savior. As we walk, we observe the perfect example of Christian living and service, which is Jesus walking on this earth, fully human and fully divine. It is during this time that we are transformed into the image of Christ at work in the world ... if we will but allow it!

In this Season of "after Pentecost," let us live out our lives as mothers, fathers, sons, daughters, friends, and neighbors — and even strangers — together, being faithful to our calling to live in the love, grace, joy, and hope of Jesus Christ with one another. Let us truly live as the people — and the movement — that God calls us to be.

Worship and the Presence of God

Did you know that worship isn't only for God? Then you worship God, it brings pleasure and delight to God, but it also does something for you. There are benefits that come from being in God's presence through worship.

Psalms 16:11 tells us,

You reveal the path of life to me
In Your presence is abundant joy
In Your right hand are eternal pleasures.

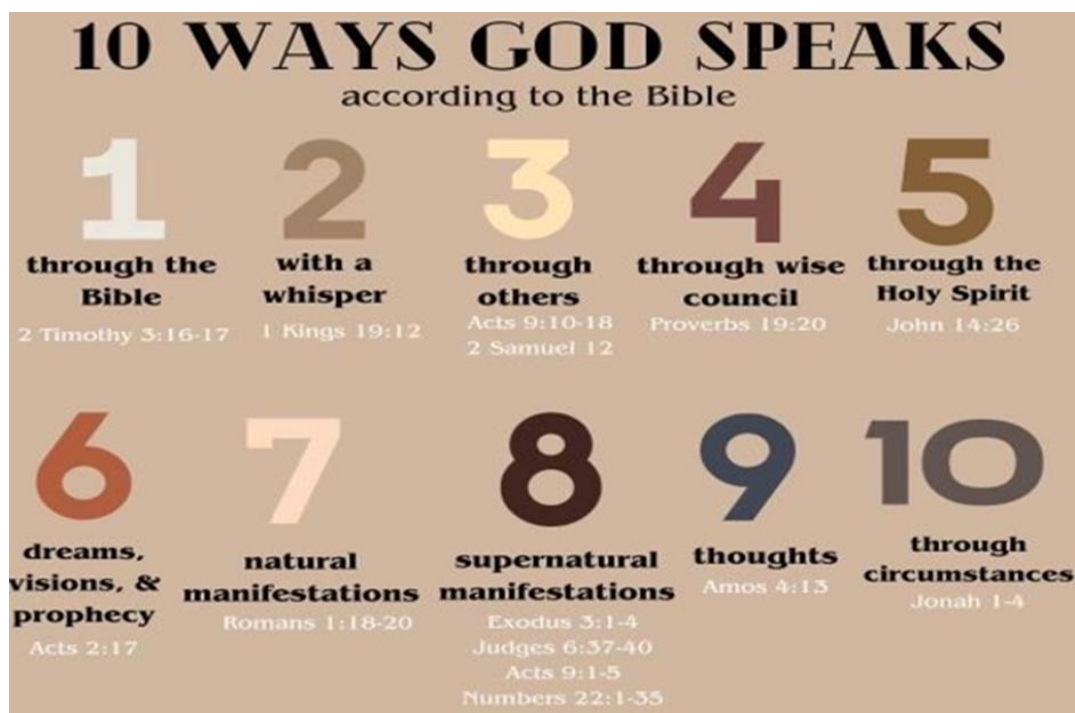

The psalmist says that worship brings joy. Being in God's presence lifts us up emotionally. When joy has escaped you, it is time to worship. When life has crushed in on you, it is time to worship. When the devil has robbed you of your happiness, it is time to worship. When Satan has surrounded you or circumstances have surrounded you with things that bring you down, it is time to worship.

The reason King David ran to worship is because he knew the joy in God's presence was the fullness of joy. So, if you want to be lifted in your spirit and emotions, go to God. Sing to God. Say nice things about God. Tell God you love him.

You don't find joy by looking for joy. You find joy by being in an environment of joy. And believe me, God lives in an atmosphere of joy. Worship is not something that you do because you feel like it. It is something that you do because God deserves it. That is why you worship. God says when you worship because He deserves it, you are in His presence, and in His presence is the fullness of joy.

FREEDOM

What is "Freedom"? The dictionary defines freedom as the power or right to act, speak, or think as one wants without hindrance or restraint. It is the state of not being imprisoned or enslaved.

Jesus, according to John 8:31-32, said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you abide in My Word, you are truly My disciples, and you will know The Truth, and The Truth will set you free."

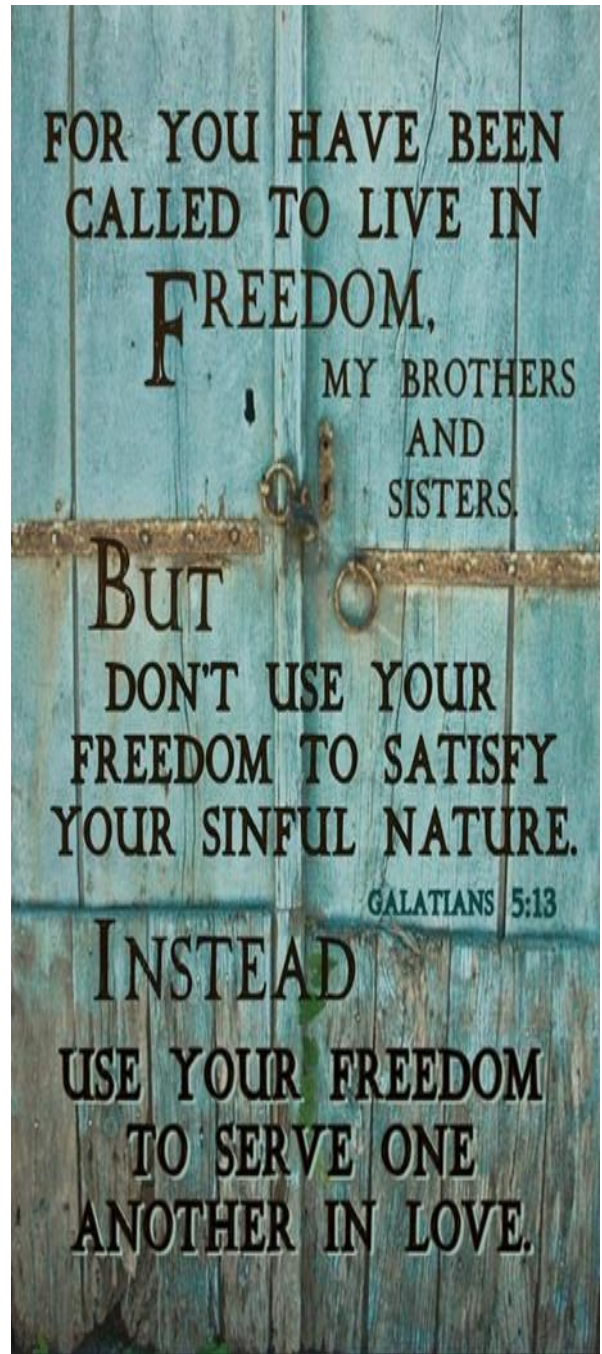

Freedom in Christ is the freedom to say "YES" to God! Christ has set us free from sin and selfishness, and from Satan and bondage! But, Christ has also set us free for His Purpose!

- We are set free, to be set apart, for His Purpose!
- We have been set free in Christ as His sons and daughters!
- We have been set free in Christ ultimately to enjoy God!

Jesus declared, "So if The Son sets you free, you will be free indeed: (John 8:36).

Because of Him, and because of our freedom, let us:

- Live in His Word!
- Live by His Word!
- Live from His Word!

Prayer Power: Summer with God

For some, summer is a verb. As in “Where do you summer?” The question assumes a certain level of wealth and leisure. Of course, not everyone can afford a lake house or country home, let alone an extended stay away from the pressures of daily life. But we can all summer with God.

Want to enjoy a season of spiritual warmth, growth and renewal? Pick from among the following six suggestions, which form the acrostic summer. Or even try them all!

Slow down.

Summer brings a change of pace—vacation, holidays, travel. Why not take advantage of that change and invite God into it? Take a break, whether it’s a beach vacation or a weekend away, and listen for God’s voice. Pause for prayer on a walk or hike. Arrive early at church, or linger a little longer in God’s presence.

Unload a burden.

We dress lighter in summer: No heavy coats, scarves or sweaters. But is something still weighing you down? A grudge? Regret? A bad habit? An unrealistic expectation? This summer, ask God to help you let go of whatever’s cluttering your spirit.

Move prayer practice outside.

Take your morning coffee-and-prayer time to the backyard. Or find a spot in the park to pray and read your Bible or an inspirational book. A favorite memory of mine is from a backpacking trip I took with my teenage son. We stopped by a mountain stream, kicked off our shoes and read In His Steps while dangling our feet in the cool water.

Mingle seasonal pleasures with prayer.

Stop to smell the roses—literally—and give thanks for the fragrance of summer. Share a tall glass of lemonade or slice of melon with your prayer partner. Drop by a Little League game or neighborhood playground to savor the sounds of the season, and let God prompt a few fond memories from your childhood—or your children’s.

Enjoy an outdoor worship experience.

Do any churches in your area host concerts or worship services in the park or at the beach? Some churches even hold periodic “holy hikes,” blending worship and low-impact walking. Check out a nearby prayer labyrinth. Or simply find a flower-filled meadow and sing a hymn of praise to God.

Reflect and recharge.

When you look back on these summer months, how would you like your spiritual life to be different? Refreshed? Rejuvenated? What moments might produce such a result in you and for you?

You might spend an hour reflecting on the first half of this year and asking for God’s blessing on the second half to come. Or you might renew a practice you’ve let slide, such as attending church or singing in the choir. Or you might rekindle a friendship and pray together over the phone.

Summer is an easy season to love. You’ll love it even more if you include God in your plans and summer with him.

Pray for God's Walks!

At a recent gathering, we were reminded by the Fall Lay Directors that "God's Walks" are just around the corner!

In Thessalonians 5:16, Paul tells us to PRAY WITHOUT CEASING, and it is not too early to start praying for the Team and the Pilgrims that will be at those Walks. It is also important to pray for the Family they will be leaving at home and all who will be traveling throughout the weekend. Add the Sponsors who work so hard to get their Pilgrim ready and then are available for the Pilgrim's Family. We can also pray NOW for those who are thinking about being a Pilgrim and the Sponsors that are talking to them and praying for them.

This outline has been used often before and during our Walks. Although we don't know the names of the pilgrims yet, we can still pray for them by number. I hope this will encourage you to start TODAY praying for the Walks, and please consider signing up for the Prayer Vigil.

Remember, anyone, regardless of age or health, can be a Prayer Warrior.

Board Publications Chairman

Returning To God

The father said to his servants, "This son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found." So they began to celebrate. -- Luke 15:24

After receiving his share of the inheritance, the son in the parable from Luke 15 left home and lived wildly. But when he was in need of help, he remembered his father again. He must have felt ashamed of his actions and wondered if his father would ever forgive him. But returning home was the best decision that the son could have made. The father joyfully welcomed his lost son, kissing him and calling for a celebration. I always told my son and daughter when they were going up that they would always be loved and have a home to come home to.

When we fall away from our faith or offend God, we may feel undeserving of God's mercy. But this parable reminds us that God always forgives. God sent Jesus to redeem us from our guilt, shame, disbelief, and unfaithfulness. We may think that our sin could never be forgiven, but God is always awaiting our return. No matter how far we may feel from God, God longs for our return and waits with open arms. Let us take action today by acknowledging our shortcoming and asking for God's mercy and love. God has been searching for us and awaits our return. No matter what bad things we have done in our lives, always remember we have a God that is always waiting for our return.

Lord God, thank you for choosing us. We seek the path that leads to eternal life and pray for the courage never to depart from your side.
